They Help Me Make the Dream Reality

"The design was creative and uncompromising."

As an architect, I am inundated with kitchen professionals who would like to have my clients' business. The fact of the matter is that there are few I am really comfortable enough with to bring into our client relationships. Hankins & Associates is a great partner. Here's what we like about working with Jerry:

- When it comes to selection, he has everything for my clientele.
- Whether it's replicating furniture detail or creating something truly new and exciting, Jerry is uncompromising.
- Jerry understands scale and proportion.
- He's sensitive to the architecture of the home and doesn't undo all the work that I've done with my client.
- His plans and detailed drawings are great to work with.
- Hankins & Associates sends us dwg or dxf files that we can integrate into our own design plans- it saves us so much time.
- He makes what I think may be impossible possible.

When it comes to working with a kitchen firm, we find that Jerry helps us bring it all together. We are delighted that there are no surprises with Hankins & Associates. His expertise and passion are obvious, and his commitment to professional service is second to none.
